WRECK SURVIVORS SCORE ACTION OF SPANISH STEAMER

Captain Declares It "Fooled Around" and Went Away
Without Aid.

BAVARIA MEN HEROES, HE SAYS

Survivors of Oklahoma Arrive in Boston, Bally Entertained and Accompanied Bitter Against Crew of Spanish Ship.

BOSTON, Jan. 7.—A Spanish steamer sighted us, dropped a boat, fooled around a bit, picked up the boat again, fooled around some more, and finally went away. This was the statement of Captain Guenther, who with seven other members of the crew of the ill-fated steamer, arrived here this morning.

All of the survivors were badly battered and storm-battered. None had escaped injury. They inquired anxiously as to the fate of their companions and were bitter in their denunciation of the actions of the Spanish steamer, the Manuel Gato.

The German officers and crew of the Bavaria describe the Gato as a craft, according to Guenther. They took their lives in their hands in fighting him with a small boat in order to pick up the Oklahoma's boat. The cause of the disaster may never be known. There was a crash, the survivors say, and the ship broke in two. No one heard any explosion.

The rescue crew consisted of Quartermasters Graft and Prew, and Seamen Husted, McIntire and Wachter. They were compelled to fight back the volunteers who begged a chance to assist in the rescue work.

A preliminary investigation into the case of the Oklahoma disaster was begun today by inspectors of steam vessels. Andrew J. Savage and John M. Blaine, Captain Guenther and three officers poorly clad, appeared at the office but were allowed to receive medical treatment before the hearing began. They were all suffering from bruises and frost bites.

FAVORS PITTSBURG

Banker Baker Declares It Logical Point for Regional Bank.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—That New York, New Jersey and New England should be included in one district was the opinion of George F. Baker and Charles F. Blinn, prominent New York bankers, when they appeared before Secretary McAdoo and Houston in a conference today in an effort to determine the best location for the regional reserve banks under the new currency bill.

Baker, who is second only to J. P. Morgan in financial circles, said that he considered Philadelphia and Pittsburgh as logical centers for regional banks. He pointed out that a bank in New York would be able to accommodate a large amount of business and insure complete confidence. It should have a capital of $25,000,000 in cash and a reserve of $10,000,000. He would say nothing as to the probable effect of the redistribution of funds might have.

UNKNOWN RUGBY KEY STOLEN

Clarkburg Lodge Loses It as Did Several Others.

CLARKBURG, W. Va., Jan. 7.—The big key of Clarkburg, a wooden structure something like a large sign, which was originally stolen from the New York Lodge No. 1 of Elks and which was stolen by Clarkburg Elks several months ago from the Elks lodge, was stolen from the 1st lodge yesterday morning. It is reported to be on the way to Park Creek, Mich.

A dozen or more Elks lodges have stolen the key since it was placed in the New York club several years ago.

PENNSY EMPLOYEES' FAMILIES HIT HARDEST BY PASS RULE

Other Road, here "Interstate" So Far as Most of Travel East

A general inland-renting of the meaning of the words "not good for interstate travel" on the employees' families' passes seem to prevail, according to a local railroad official. The new rule is not good for passage strictly between points in Pennsylvania but will be accepted between a point in this state and one outside of the state lines.

These families of employees cannot ride on the Pennsylvania Railroad, but they can use them between here and Cumberland or the same rule applies on the return trip.

"Perhaps it would be so bad after all," said a railroad official, "if it were not for the fact that we would have to pay to the state limits and only ride free beyond."

The same interpretation of the new public utility law would permit of the granting of a pass over the Baltimore & Ohio between Connellsville and Philadelphia because the route goes out of the state and then returns to Pennsylvania. Railroad employees of the other railroads for they could secure passes only on the Baltimore & Ohio which the employees use, and most of these are entirely within the state.

Official cards for distribution among the employees have been received at the Baltimore & Ohio ticket office. They are subject to the same restrictions as the employees' family passes. The half-fare privilege being withdrawn between points in the state.

NEW WALK ON YOUGH BRIDGE IS PROMISED BY COMMISSIONERS

Indicated That the Petition From Connellsville Will be Acted On.

NO POSITIVE STATEMENT MADE

Report of County Engineer Suggesting That Present Walk be Repaired, and Petition of Citizens for an Additional Pathway Met With Approval.

The construction of an additional sidewalk on the Yough bridge has been virtually decided upon by the county commissioners, although no statement to that effect could be obtained today. The officials being away from Uniontown. It is said, however, that as a result of the inspection made by County Engineer Wilbur Dunn, and the petition filed by residents and business men of Connellsville, the old walk will not only be repaired, but a new one will be constructed.

This decision will be welcome news here. It has long been evident that a single walk across the bridge is not sufficient for the traffic. As a matter of fact, the entire bridge is too small, but the condition in the roadway is not so serious.

The Courier has from time to time called attention to the fact that an additional sidewalk was needed. A few weeks ago a petition was circulated, and largely signed. The West side residents, principal users of the bridge, are strongly in favor of the additional walk. On Saturdays, and during the hours of the evening when travel is brisk, the single walk is so crowded that persons are often forced into the roadway, where they are placed in danger of being run down. Merchants along the south side of Main street are particularly interested in the construction of a new walk. The present walk is on the north side of the bridge, and most of the foot travel continues up the north side of Main street to Brimstone Corner. It is expected that if the new walk is built, much of this travel will remain on the south side of the street.

It is expected that when the improvements to the bridge are started, the structure will be repaired in such a manner as to absolutely insure its safety. Although not in a dangerous condition, experts say, the bridge is badly in need of repair and several coats of paint.

EMINENT DOMAIN DOES NOT COVER RIGHTS TO WATER

Supreme Court Upholds Permanent Injunction Against Maryland at Washington.

SOMERSET, Jan. 7.—Under a Supreme Court decision handed down in Philadelphia yesterday in a Somerset county case, it is held that a railroad company whose right-of-way is acquired by condemnation proceedings, has no right to use water from a stream flowing across said right-of-way, without acquiring it separately from the land.

The ruling was made in affirming the judgment of the Somerset county court, Judge W. Rush Gillan, of Franklin county, specially presiding, in the case of the Maryland Hotel Company against the Connellsville & State Line Railroad Company, a subsidiary of the Western Maryland, appellant, in which a permanent injunction was granted restraining the defendant from using the water of Lac's run, near Markleton, for the purpose of supplying its locomotives.

The decision of the Supreme Court renders useless a water plant erected by the railroad company at a cost of several thousand dollars unless the water is purchased from the hotel company, the original owner of the land condemned for railroad purposes.

The action of the Supreme Court is unique in Pennsylvania railroad history, as the question had never before been passed upon in the appellate courts of the state. The Pennsylvania railroad was given power to condemn water rights in 1853 by a special act of the legislature. Other railroads cannot secure this privilege, as the Constitution of 1873 prohibits special legislation.

A feature of the Markleton case was that the railroad company did not go beyond the confines of its right-of-way in taking water from the stream. Its entire plant, including the water tank, was situated on the railroad right-of-way. The condemnation proceedings. But even this limited use of the water is held by the Supreme Court to be an invasion of the rights of the original owner of the land.

Lac's run is one of the few mountain streams in Somerset county that has not been contaminated by mining operations. The water of this stream is of pure and sparkling quality, which is desirable for steam producing purposes. It is said that on account of its peculiar geographical location, Lac's run is not likely to be polluted in the future, which would make it a valuable asset of the railroad company.

Too Feeble to Attend Court, His Deposition is Read in Dispute Between John H. Pringley and John McCollins: Other Doings in Civil Court.

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 7.—Declaring that he has surveyed thousands of acres in the past 50 years and that his lines have never before been questioned, Surveyor Gimm of Normalville, in a deposition read into court this morning, defended the accuracy of his survey, over which John H. Pringley and John McCollins, both of Springfield township, are at law.

IMMENSE ORE TRACT TAKEN OVER BY PITTSBURG STEEL

High Grade Deposit is Discovered in Minnesota and Acquired by Big Company.

After exhaustive exploration covering a period of many months the Pittsburgh Steel Company has developed the richest iron ore mine discovered in recent years, and probably one of the three biggest mines in the United States. J. C. Barr, general manager of the Pittsburgh Steel Company, subsidiary of the Pittsburgh Steel Company, through which the ore company will handle all of its business, spent the past week in Pittsburgh, in submitting his final report for the year 1913. He demonstrated beyond question that the property contains not less than 100,000,000 tons of high-grade shipping ore.

Negotiations for the taking over of this property in Craw Wing county, Minn., were first started by the officers of the company in October, 1912. The company placed expert iron ore men on the property to prosecute a thorough investigation. Today a conservative estimate by a number of the iron ore men makes the available quantity of ore not less than the 100,000,000 tons mentioned, all of a commercial high grade, averaging not less than 55 to 58 percent metallic iron.

The mine operation is a "stripping" one, no deep mining being required. The overhead covering averages about 40 feet of sand. Two means are being used to remove this—washing by hydraulic pressure and by steam shovel. The area of the mine is 220 acres.

To form some idea as to the value of this ore, leading ore producers have placed the value at $15 a ton in the market. This property being a stripping proposition will enable the Pittsburgh Steel Company to mine the ore at a minimum cost. This property was acquired principally by the purchase of the two modern blast furnaces recently completed in Minnesota, but there will be a large surplus beyond the requirements of the company.

With the acquiring of its ore property the Pittsburgh Steel Company with its closely allied company, the Pittsburgh Steel Products Company, will give employment to about 6,000 men, with an annual payroll approaching $5,000,000. The large mine was named "Rowe," in honor of President Wallace H. Rowe of the steel company.

BIG RAILROAD WORK

Station, Dollar Tank is Under Way
Above McKeesport.

Officials of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie are making improvements above McKeesport, on which $100,000 already has been spent, with the work not half done. The public is in ignorance as to whether yards, shops or both are to occupy 47 acres of ground purchased by the company about a year ago. From 200 to 300 men for months have been cutting into a hillside for half a mile, the dirt being dumped on the Youghiogheny river side of the tracks, where there is room for 500 men. The large shops are to be built on the hillside.

It is said that before the hillside cutting and the fill are completed the company will have expended at least $1,000,000 and that it then will be able to handle a much greater volume of business. The new shops are to be built on the hillside, and the Western Maryland trucks from Connellsville.

ELUDES QUARANTINE IN SMALLPOX HOME; COPS SEND HER BACK

VISITOR WHEN BAN IS DECLARED

Slips Past Guards at Daybreak and Comes to Connellsville but Employer
Notifies the Police. Who Force Her to Walk Back; Barnes Escorts Her.

Eluding the guards that were stationed at the home of Frank Kunish, the smallpox patient at Morrell, early this morning Miss Falkenberg, a visitor, slipped past the guards and came to Connellsville and reported for work at the store of John L. Wortman on South Pittsburgh street. It took the combined efforts of Health Officer Chief of Police Rotter and Patrolman John Barnes to get her safely on her way back to the Kunish home where she will be quarantined until the danger of contagion is entirely removed.

Miss Falkenberg went to her home in Morrell on Saturday but was in the Kunish home nearby when it was discovered that Mr. Kunish was suffering from smallpox by Dr. W. W. Warne of Dunbar. Dr. O. H. Altman, representative of the State Health Department, established a strict quarantine on the house and Miss Falkenberg was among those included.

All of the inmates were vaccinated, together with 35 school children, among them the two Kunish children. Guards stationed in front of the house were instructed not to allow anyone to enter or leave. However, at daylight this morning, Miss Falkenberg decided she had stayed long enough and slipped out of the house by a back door and taking a roundabout way to the trolley line, boarded a car for Connellsville.

Arriving at the Wortman store she casually informed them that she had been detained because of a case of smallpox had been discovered in a house she had been visiting at Morrell. Mr. Wortman told her to go back to Morrell immediately and telephoned the police to intercept her and prevent her from taking a trolley car. Patrolman Barnes met her on Main street and told her she was endangering others if she rode on the trolley, but she insisted upon taking it. He accompanied her to the city hall where Chief Rotter, after some strenuous conversation during which it was necessary to threaten her with incarceration in the pest house, finally induced her to return to Morrell via the wagon road.

Miss Falkenberg and Patrolman Barnes then began a long walk to Morrell, the latter being sent along to see that she did not reconsider her determination to board a trolley car. Frank Kunish whose illness was diagnosed as smallpox, was employed at New Kensington. When the two physicians agreed upon the nature of the illness, a quarantine was immediately effected. The case, however, is said to be mild.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK.
It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, why not get ready just as your grandmother did, and use the Sage and Sulphur method at 244 Fairview avenue by L. G. Garrett of Garrett School of Music, Thursday only.—Adv.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Hair Restorer," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Witch's Sage and Sulphur" because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.—Adv.

SEVERE BRONCHIAL COUGH.
Doctors Feared Lung Trouble. Restored to Health by Vinol.

Mrs. Kate Heckman, Springfield, Ohio, says: "A few years ago I was a very bad run-down woman, and the physician told me I had consumption. I tried another physician, and he told me I had cancer on my right lung. I was in a very bad way, and started on Vinol."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Vinol is sold in all drug stores. Vinol is sold in West Side by Fred H. Harmoning, druggist.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

MOUNT PLEASANT, January 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lowther and Postmaster H. J. Jordan were in Pittsburgh yesterday attending the hearing of Sam Delaney who is charged with robbing the local post office. These three will go to Erie on Sunday, where they will attend the trial to be held in Federal court on Monday.

The evangelistic services at the tabernacle brought out a large congregation on Tuesday evening, following the feast of Monday, when no services were held. Fully 1,800 people were in attendance, showing the interest in the meetings.

The afternoon service at 2.30 was attended by a good crowd and Keith L. Brooks, as the Bible teacher, gave a devotional talk which proved very helpful. He spoke on "How to Pray" on Thursday and Friday afternoon at the same hour. Next week he will begin a series of lectures on "How to Know the Bible is an Inspired Book." Following the Bible lecture came the special meeting for boys and girls at which Mrs. Brooks spoke.

Mrs. Brooks uses the art of magic in illustrating scriptural truths. To catch the attention of the children she children she waved a white silk handkerchief at the same time producing a red handkerchief within it. Trying the movement again she produced a blue one. Stuffing the three into an empty cylinder she brought out an American flag, upon which the 100 children present sang the national hymn. During the singing Mrs. Brooks apparently for celebration, endeavored to light a large fire-cracker on the platform. When it failed to go off, in disgust, she pulled the fuse out, whereupon there was an explosion and puff of smoke, and a shower of confetti came down upon the crowd.

Mrs. Brooks in her talk frequently produced magical implements which did the most astonishing feats and all of which served to emphasize the truths of the Bible. The boys and girls were intent with interest watching for the unexpected and unconsciously absorbing truth. Another of these meetings will be held on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The city has been divided into 12 districts and cottage prayer meetings of a very informal character are being held each morning. The choir leader, John Burak, enthused the crowd in the leading of the songs. Gospel hymns last evening. Mr. Burak and Mr. Brooks sang "Jesus Will." Following Doctor Hall's sermon on "Necessity of Regeneration," Miss Corry sang sweetly "My Tabernacle."

This evening Doctor Hall will preach on the subject, "Home Sweet Home," and on Thursday evening there will be a special lecture on "The Field Card."

The Ladies Aid Society of the Reunion Presbyterian Church held a meeting at the home of Mrs. W. C. MAN'S LUCKY FIND

Will Interest Readers of The Courier.

Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorders, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatic pains, or other kidney and bladder disorders, will read with gratification this encouraging statement by a Conneltsville man.

M. D. Barclay, 404 E. Main St., Conneltsville, Pa., says: "I had a lame back and severe pains in my joints. I could not rest well and was hardly able to straighten after stooping. The kidney secretions were highly colored and often contained heavy sediment. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of the trouble with the kidney secretions and removed the lameness and pains in my back. I now sleep soundly and feel better in every way."

FOR THE "MAN" OF THE FAMILY.

A pretty little novelty in the way of a suit for a small boy of four is sketched above. These suits may be developed in wool or wash materials but are usually made of the former. They make quite a change for the small man from the Russian blouse and sailor style. This little garment is made of a very dark blue serge with washable shield of white. The little jumper portion slips on over the head, this being made possible by the "V" cut in the neck across which two little straps of the material are buttoned. These little "blouses" are cut shorter than the Russian style for a child of this age and are without belts. The little "peg top" trousers also have a little wedge shaped piece cut from the bottom edge and the resultant opening crossed with a single strap.

WEDNESDAY EVENG. JAN. 7, 1914.

OUT OF ORDER.

When President Younklin of the Conneltsville School Board remarked in open meeting that the Trustees of the Carnegie Free Library should be required to make a detailed report of the manner in which the library appropriations of the school district had been expended, embellishing his words with the statement that the report might be instructive and edifying to the public, he was painfully and lamentably out of order.

Such a statement is made annually at a stated period. It will be made this year at the accustomed time. This statement is required by law. President Younklin is a lawyer. He should know something about the law, especially the school law. If he does not, he should take a few days off and read up.

There never has been any attempt on the part of the Trustees of the Carnegie Free Library to conceal the manner in which the library expenditures have been made. There have been times when there were no reports of the expenditures of the school district money but that was when the school board failed to appropriate any.

Furthermore, the school board has representation on the library board, and it is privileged through its members to know at all times just what the library management is doing as well as what it is expending. It would be impossible for the library officials or trustees to keep the school board in ignorance of any essential detail of the management at any time.

It is generally conceded that the library has done a greater work for the public schools of Conneltsville than for any other single interest. The school authorities should, therefore, at all times be helpful to the library in its efforts to make the object of its efforts.

The Fayette County Bar Association is urged to adopt a code of ethics. Aside from the moral aspect of the matter, such a code will doubtless tend to favor the reason that it will put the legal business in the open where every attorney will not have to wait his opponent's test he take some unfair advantage. The bar should have an ethical code for all members. It would be a good idea for the Fayette county editors to have one.

The Days of Isaac is hovering anxiously over the horizon but it cannot find a safe place to land.

There are many who are wrestling with the question of the future of the Fayette county. It is a question of the future of the Fayette county. It is a question of the future of the Fayette county.

The fatal slide fall continues to occur in spite of the protests of Chief Frederick. Neither imagination nor imagination will cure this evil; in fact, it cannot be cured, but it may be mitigated by close observance of the rule of safety first.

Woman's World

Girl in the Early Twenties Wins $10,000 Literary Prize.

MISS DAISY DYRUMPLE.

If you were a young and ambitious story writer just beginning to get a footing in the literary world and should win a $10,000 prize for the best story submitted in a contest how would you feel?

Happy? Well, I reckon that feeling would about cover the sensation, and it is exactly how Miss Daisy Dyrumple, the fortunate winner of a recent prize, describes her emotions when she heard the good news.

"I wrote 'Utters of the Green Van,' said Miss Dyrumple. 'In six weeks one evening while looking over a New York paper I saw the contest advertised, and I immediately determined to try for the prize.'

"For six weeks I was dead to the world and barely alive to my family and friends. Indeed, mother says she elated about half of the prize money as her share for keeping disturbing sights and sounds out of my life during the weeks I was scribbling."

"Miss Dyrumple is a New Jersey girl, having spent most of her life in the city of Passaic. Her father is a prominent lawyer, a student and the owner of an exceptionally fine library. Miss Dyrumple attributes her literary taste to the splendid opportunity her father's well chosen collection of books afforded her. At an early age she was turned loose in the library to browse among the books at will. Among the favorite authors of the young woman are William Shakespeare, De Morgan and Jeffrey Farrel, and of the older authors she most admires Dickens, Thackeray and George Eliot.

Stories for the prize winning run were entered anonymously and Miss Dyrumple sent in two romances. When the final sifting of manuscripts took place the judges did not know which of her stories to select as the winner. The story, however, which did not win out, the publishers have kept and will bring out next year.

This is not Miss Dyrumple's first experience in prize winning. She has been the lucky one upon two other occasions, but the checks received were not nearly so large.

And speaking of checks Miss Dyrumple is a good little business woman and will invest most of her $10,000 in bonds and mortgages and will not use the money for Paris gowns or a trip around the world or a new motor car.

This petite blue-eyed girl with a wealth of wavy golden hair although a romance writer has strong convictions. She believes in "votes for women" but at the same time she is a homey sort of person in a look and a housekeeper of marked ability.

"A Friend in Need"

Few women have reached "an old age serene and bright and lovely as a landscape night" without being called upon—no more but many times—to dispense sage counsel to young men. Many a man in his retirement of a successful life is glad to acknowledge what he owes to the words of an older woman, that were said in time to enable him to avoid an error or to prevent a repetition of the mistake he made.

It is a wonderful thing for the student absent from home, the beginner in business, the novice making his way in any career, to have one faithful voice, one attentive, sympathetic ear, wherein he may repose his confidence and be quite sure he will never be betrayed or disappointed. The tender memory of such a "guide, philosopher and friend" will never leave him. His life will be truer and nobler because he does not care to disappoint her.

Eleven Piece Shirt Waist Set. What waist set for the schoolgirl who goes in for pretty novelties in small jewelry and of fine quality combining gold or silver metal. The combinations of shades are in wondrous tones of blue mingled sparkling with black, in green or rose with white and in mauve with gray.

The sets include eleven pieces—a half dozen oval shirt waist studs of moderate size button cuff links, a hair width lacy than the studs, an oval brooch measuring a trifle over an inch in length a circular topped hat pin and a square belt buckle with trunk prongs and bars.

AT THE THEATRES.

THE SOISSON.

THE NEW 'HIGH ROLLERS'

Fun—wholesome, contagious, undiluted—just fun—that is the aim of the High Rollers Big Burlesque Company in the bill it will present to theatre-goers at the Soisson Theatre Friday, January 9. That they are succeeding is attested by that unfailing indication of popular approval—box office receipts. Other companies are closing. The season has been one of the most disastrous in the history of the American stage. But they are making such a big hit that they have already played a dozen return engagements this season. Dave Meyer is at head of the galaxy of uncouth comedians, but it is essentially a girly show, and the show girls are the last word of feminine loveliness. Extra attraction La Neta, queen of all dancers.

"UNCLE JOSH SIMPKINS"

"Joshua Simpkins" a rural comedy which has been presented continuously for several seasons on the road, will play an engagement in this city at the Soisson Theatre matinee and night Saturday, January 10. It is a comedy drama well acted by a company said to possess more than ordinary merit, in addition to which several pleasing specialties are introduced. A complete orchestra composed of professional musicians discourses incidentally music which assists to make the play the success it is. This feature is claimed by the management to be well-edged and it is said to far exceed the usual orchestra by theatrical companies. Their fine band will give a burlesque parade about noon on the day of the engagement. A box of candy given to all children at the matinee.

ALFRED WARD BIRDELL.

The celebrated lecturer Alfred Ward Birdsell will be at the Soisson Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 12, 13 and 14. The Pittsburgh Gazette Times speaks of his engagement at the Soisson Theatre as follows: "The American lecture season of Alfred Ward Birdsell, the Pittsburgh traveler opens this week at the Soisson Theatre, Mr. Birdsell giving his travelogue on 'Labrador' Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons and nights at 2:15 and 8:15 P. M. OLD-TIME GOLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it "Hamburger Brust Tea" at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea put a cup of boiling water upon it pour through a sieve and drink it as soon as it is ready. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip as it opens the pores, relieves congestion. Also loosens the bowels thus breaking a cold at once. It is medicinal and entirely vegetable therefore harmless.—Advt.

How Atlantic Coast Was Storm Tossed By Worst Gale and Surf in Years

1-OCTAGON HOTEL WHICH WAS SWEEPED INTO OCEAN. 2-PRIVATE RESIDENCE WRECKED BY GALE. 3-BOATHOUSE TOSSED AGAINST FISHERMAN'S HOME

The New Jersey and Long Island bright N. J. felt the full fury of the summer resorts which were hit by sea. Huge breakers fifty feet high and returned to driftwood. Seabright only slowly emerging from the harbor stretch of land on which the summer resort is located. The $75,000 Octagon Hotel was undermined and washed away. Costly cottages of rich men and summer residents were partly destroyed. Many small homes of the fishermen, the people who live there the year round were carried out to sea and returned to driftwood. Seabright had been damaged by a severe storm Christmas night. Atlantic City, Absecon, Egg Harbor and other New Jersey places were damaged.
